County Councillor	A member of Hampshire County Council, who represents a ward within the boundaries of the Borough of Havant
Clear Working Days	Clear Working Days means a complete period of 24 hours excluding days when the Public Plaza is closed, weekends, Bank Holidays and the day when meeting is held.
Deputation Statement	A written statement, which must be provided in advance to support a speech, setting out the issues a speaker wishes to raise with the Committee during his or her address.
Non-Member	Havant Borough Councillor, who is not attending a meeting of the Planning Committee as a member of the Committee
Speaker	A person, who is not a member of the Committee or officer of the Committee, that has been accepted by the Council to speak at a Committee meeting.
Statutory Consultation Period	The period of time for formal public consultation on a planning application.
Written Submission	A written text submitted for consideration by the Committee by a party, who does not wish to speak to the Committee

B. General Notes

- 1 The primary intention of this scheme is to allow members of the public who have submitted representations on a specific planning application during the statutory consultation period, agents, Hampshire County Councillors and Havant Borough Councillors, who are not members of the Planning Committee, to:
 - a speak at a meeting of the Planning Committee; or
 - b submit written submissions to a meeting of the Planning Committeeon a specific planning application before the Committee and bring to the Committee's attention concerns already raised during the statutory consultation period. This scheme is the adopted scheme for speaking referred to in paragraphs 3.7 and 8.2 of the adopted Planning Code of Conduct.

- 2 Please note that although Planning Committee meetings are held in public, they are not public meetings; as a result, a person, who is not a member of the Committee or an officer of the Committee, may only speak to the Committee if he or she has registered to speak as shown below.

C How to Submit Views to the Planning Committee

Applies to members of the public, agents, Hampshire County Councillors, and Non-Members

- 1 Once the agenda has been published there is an opportunity for:
 - a members of the public, who have submitted representations on a specific planning application to be considered at a meeting of the Planning Committee during the statutory planning period;
 - b applicants or agents;
 - c Hampshire County Councillors; and
 - d Havant Borough Councillors, who are not attending as Members of the Planning Committee to submit comments to the Committee on an application which is due to be considered at that meeting. Such comments must relate to concerns and/or issues raised during the statutory consultation period.

- 2 The recommended way to submit views to the Committee is to either:
 - (a) submit a written statement, which is known as making a written submission if you do not wish to speak to the Committee but wish to highlight specific issues raised during the statutory consultation period¹. Details of how to make a written submission are shown below: or
 - (b) request to speak to the Committee to highlight issues you wish to raise², which is known as a deputation. When requesting this, a written statement (“deputation statement”) must be provided in advance, setting out the issues you want to raise at the Committee. Details of how to do this are shown below.
- 3 If an application is deferred to be considered at a later meeting, no public speaking will take place on the application deferred and registered speakers will have to apply again to speak.

¹ Members of the public may only raise issues they raised during the statutory consultation period

² Members of the public may only raise issues they raised during the statutory consultation period

- 4 If an application is deferred to be considered at a later meeting, written submissions will not be considered on the deferred application and will have to be resubmitted.

D Form, Structure, and Content of a Deputation Statement and Written Submission

Applies to members of the public, agents, Hampshire County Councillors, and Non-Members

1 Content

- a A written submission or deputation statement will only be accepted if it relates to a planning application included in the agenda for a meeting of the Committee.
- b It is important to remember that the Committee can only consider certain criteria when deciding a planning application. To help you, we have provided details below of examples of what can and cannot be taken into account.

Matters that can be considered	Matters that cannot be considered
Matters that are contrary to development plan policies	Devalue property or cause the loss of a private view
Not in accordance with government policy	Breach of covenant in a private contract
Highway safety and traffic impact; inadequate parking	Applicant does not own the land
Servicing or turning space provided	Boundary disputes
Harmful to conservation area or listed building	Local opposition i.e. vandalism, over-population
Overdevelopment or overintensive development	Matters covered by other legislation e.g. alcohol licensing
Overlooking or loss of privacy or other residential amenity	Objections raised on moral, racial, or religious grounds
Visually intrusive or overbearing	Personal views about the applicant
Poor external design; appearance or layout	Already too many other similar uses
Loss of trees and/or landscaping seen from public spaces
Noise and disturbance from the proposed development (but not from construction work).
Conflict with Nature Conservation criteria for the area.

- c The written submission and deputation statement should contain a summary of reasons for supporting or opposing the application¹. A list of headings or bullet points without an explanation will not be accepted.
- d Deputation statements or written submissions that are accepted will be published on the Council's website and copies made for councillors and members of the public. The laws of defamation are very strict. If you say or write something defamatory in public about a person which is not true, even if you believe it to be true, you may be at risk of legal action. Therefore, avoid defamatory comments in any deputation statement or written submission to the Committee.
- e The Monitoring Officer may rule out of order any deputation statement or written submission that is vexatious, derogatory, defamatory, frivolous, or offensive.
- f A deputation statement or a written submission may not contain images or photographs.
- g Please note that speakers are not expected to read out their deputation statement word for word. It is anticipated that the speaker will use the allocated time to highlight the issues raised in their deputation statement. This is not however, an opportunity to raise issues not included in the deputation statement.

2 Format of Written Submissions and Deputation Statements

- a Written submissions and deputation statements must be:
 - i typed in a regular Arial 12 font with standard spacing between the words and single line spacing between lines;

Applies to Non-Members

- d If a Non-Member is unable to address the Committee for any reason, any elected councillor, who is not attending as member of the Committee, will be permitted to speak in their place, provided that the Non-Member notifies the Democratic Services Team of the change at least 30 minutes before the meeting is due to start.

J Procedure at the Meeting

- 1 Committee meetings will start at the time and held at the venue advertised on the Council's website.
- 2 Speakers are recommended to arrive 15 minutes before the start of the meeting. A member of the Democratic Services Team will be there to greet Speakers and explain the procedure, including how to use the microphone.
- 3 All written deputations and written submissions will be published on the Council's website before the start of the meeting. At the start of the meeting, the Chairman will ask the members of the Committee to confirm that they have all read the submitted Committee papers, which include written submissions and deputation statements. The meeting will adjourn, if necessary, to enable members to read all the necessary papers. Deputation statements or written submissions will not be read out at the meeting by an officer of the Committee or a member of the Committee.
- 4 No written material, photographs, diagrams or other papers may be distributed by speakers at the meeting itself.
- 5 Speakers may not present slides or video presentations at a committee meeting.
- 6 Each application is considered in turn with the following procedure:
 - a The Chairman reads out which item is to be discussed next
 - b One of the planning officers will give an introduction and/or some factual updates about the application
 - c The speakers will then be invited by the Chairman to address the Committee from an allocated desk in the following order:
 - Objector(s)
 - County Councillor(s)
 - Non-Member(s)
 - Applicants or the agent/supporter

Please note that speakers are not expected to read out their written deputation word for word. It is anticipated that the speaker will use the allocated time to highlight the issues raised in his or her deputation statement. However, this is not an opportunity for the speaker to raise issues not included in the deputation statement.

- d After a speaker has finished speaking the Chairman may allow the members of the Committee to ask the speaker factual questions of clarification.
- e All speakers will be requested to return to the public seating area after they have made their deputation and answered any relevant question(s) put to them by Members of the Committee.
- f Officers will be given an opportunity to respond to issues raised by the speakers and any issues raised in written submissions or deputation statements.
- g Members of the Committee may ask officers questions relating to the application.
- h Members of the Committee will debate and vote on the application. In a majority of cases the debate is heard in public. However, occasionally, the committee may need to go into closed session to consider information that is confidential or exempt from publication. If this happens, the committee will pass a resolution to that effect and any participant who is not a member of the committee will be asked to leave the meeting.
- i When a decision is made, the Committee will move on to the next item on the agenda
